@MikeQfishing

The bottom line is someone not CEO'S started this crap and hijacked my dividend by trading it against the company's wishes! I am an OG!! It pisses me off when people either try to sue the CEO'S or Nextbridge! Nextbridge can't even get an S1 approval by the SEC, who we know is involved to some degree, which remains to be uncovered!! They the 2 entities know the share count! They pulled it on December 5th! Hello all! We have gone over this millions of times! How you can fault the 2 CEO'S for anything is beyond me! You need to look at GTS securities and Canacord! Plus, those in the UPC COMMITTEE! All this other bs is as Forrest Gump said stupid is as stupid does!! Time is NEVER on the criminals' side! I don't give a shit if Brda sold shares, but he didn't sell all, did he!! People fight the fight, but go after those we know are the criminals! If you do stupid in our community, you need to be CALLED OUT! PERIOD! No matter who, and that includes myself because I am not perfect but have a lot of common sense! Thank you!
